6. Student Access to Records

All students have timely access to current and accurate records of their participation. Students seeking advice concerning their course participation should in the first instance contact Hospitality Alliance Training.

7. Language, Literacy & Numeracy Skills (LLN) and Reasonable Adjustments

Clubs WA training courses require a minimum level of English language, literacy and numeracy skills; however we recognise that some learners may require more assistance than others.

Appropriate concessions will be made for language, literacy and numeracy issues where those concessions do not compromise the requirements of the Training Package and integrity, equity and fairness of the assessment.

If you believe you may have language, literacy, numeracy issues or other learning difficulties that may require additional assistance with your training or assessment, notify Clubs WA prior to or during the enrolment process. This information will be handled confidentially, and only for the purposes of being able to offer support and arrange reasonable adjustments for your assessment.

If you request additional assistance, it will be provided with appropriate advice, support and guidance necessary for you to meet the requirements of the relevant training product.

All assistance will be offered in a discrete manner using the principles of fairness and flexibility of workplace assessment.

There is no charge for the assistance provided by Clubs WA.

8. National Recognition

Clubs WA provides credit to learners for units or modules where evidenced by AQF certification documentation or an authenticated VET transcript, unless licensing or regulatory requirements prevent this.

9. Recognition of Prior Learning

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is offered to all students enrolling in Hospitality Alliance Training courses and is provided against the units of competency (elements and performance criteria) as described in the relevant endorsed training package.

To apply for RPL, contact Hospitality Alliance Training for an Application Pack and fee schedule.

10. Confidentiality and Privacy

The information provided to us is considered confidential and will not be sold or divulged to any third party except:

- to the extent specifically required by law
- to the extent specifically required as an RTO for compliance purposes
- where a learner's training is being provided in conjunction with another training institution or company and the learner has identified those parties through their registration and/or course purchase – by accepting the terms and conditions the learner has agreed that a copy of their statement of attainment may be provided to the identified training organisation or company except where the learner has specifically requested this to not occur

All reasonable efforts will be made to keep all information provided secure and to ensure that any of our employees or agents will not modify, reproduce, disclose or use that information without authorisation.

11. Refunds

Hospitality Alliance Training will not refund fees paid in advance unless a training cancellation request is made in writing more than 7-days prior to expiry of the training course.

The following percentage of refund will apply to all training cancellations:

- Where 20% or less of the course has been provided to the student, a 100% refund less an administration fee (20% of the total course) will apply.
- Where between 20% and 50% of the course has been provided to the student, a 50% refund less an administration fee (20% of the total course) will apply.
- Where 50% or more of the course has been provided to the student, no refund will apply.

Should Hospitality Alliance Training (Clubs WA) cancel a Course for any reason, students enrolled at the time Hospitality Alliance Training announces the cancellation will be entitled to a full refund, with no administrative charge or penalty.

In the case of a participant who wishes to withdraw from a Course or program due to illness or extreme hardship, Hospitality Alliance Training may, at its discretion, allow a refund of the fees once the person concerned produces satisfactory evidence of the circumstances of his/her withdrawal, such as medical certificates.

If a refund has been issued, under NO circumstances will a Statement of Attainment be granted for any units.

Clubs WA is not obliged to refund due to changes in legislation on a national or a state level that may affect delivery of units on scope through any mode. Such situations will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.

Where a company or individual has paid training fees in advance and been issued with a voucher code, Clubs WA is not obliged to refund any fees if they are no longer required; however a transfer of any remaining credit to another training course offered by Clubs WA may be authorised at the discretion of Clubs WA.

12. Complaints and Appeals

Clubs WA will manage and respond to all complaints and assessment appeals in a constructive and timely manner that is based on the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness by:

- informing those involved of the allegations
- providing those involved an opportunity to present their side of the matter
- operating in a fair and unbiased way

There is no fee to lodge a complaint or appeal an assessment decision.

Appeals

Appeals against an assessment decision are accepted for a period no longer than 3 months following the competency decision. Prior to submitting a formal appeal, the learner is encouraged to discuss with the assessor the reason for the assessment decision, at which time constructive feedback will be provided to the learner.

To appeal an assessment decision, complete and submit an Appeal Form obtained from Clubs WA. Acknowledgment in writing will be provided within 5 working days of the date of submission and:

- Your appeal will be reviewed by the original Assessor and a secondary Assessor within 10 working days using the following documentation:
 - Learner's completed assessments
 - Marking guide criteria
 - Training record
- You will be advised of the appeal outcome in writing within 5 working days of the decision along with the reason/s for the decision along with feedback on additional requirements for competency where the original assessment was upheld
- If a conflict of interest is identified during the appeal process, you will be offered another assessor to review the appeal
- Where the outcome will take longer than 60 calendar days:
 - You will be advised in writing of the reasons, and kept regularly informed
- If the appeal is unable to be resolved, you may request all appeal documentation be given to an appropriate party independent of Clubs WA and yourself for independent adjudication
- Your appeal and outcome will be electronically attached to your training record
- Potential causes of appeals will be identified and appropriate corrective action taken to eliminate or mitigate the likelihood of recurrence

Complaints

To lodge a complaint, complete and submit a Complaint Form obtained from Clubs WA. Acknowledgment in writing will be provided within 5 working days of the date of submission and:

- Your complaint will be reviewed within 10 working days
- You will be advised of the complaint outcome in writing within 5 working days of the decision along with any action taken
- If a conflict of interest is identified during the complaint process, you will be offered another staff member to review the complaint
- Where the outcome will take longer than 60 calendar days:
 - You will be advised in writing of the reasons, and kept regularly informed
- If the complaint is unable to be resolved, you may request all complaint documentation be given to an appropriate party independent of Clubs WA and yourself for independent adjudication
- Potential causes of complaints will be identified and appropriate corrective action taken to eliminate or mitigate the likelihood of recurrence

13. Replacement Statements of Attainment

- A replacement Statement of Attainment will be issued by email free of charge in PDF format.
- A fee of $10 will be incurred for any different formats or an original certificate posted to you.
